COLONEL MICHAEL G. "GABE" FLEMING

Colonel Michael Fleming is the Commander of Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps, Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama. The mission of AFROTC is to recruit, educate, train, motivate and develop officer candidates into Department of the Air Force commissioned officers through a comprehensive college program comprised of fundamental service doctrine, academic instruction and practical leadership experiences. Additionally, AFROTC executes a congressionally mandated training program emphasizing personal and organizational leadership, physical fitness, and officership to prepare cadets for Active Duty service.

Colonel Fleming graduated from The Citadel in 2000. He commanded at the Detachment, Squadron, and Air Base Group level. Additionally, he served on wing, hospital, and Numbered Air Force executive staffs while in-garrison and deployed. Prior to his current assignment, he was the Commander, 423d Air Base Group, Royal Air Force Alconbury, United Kingdom.
