LOOKING TO RETRAIN?

You can choose to continue in your current AFSC or retrain into a completely new career field. Whatever you do, you can count on the Air Guard to stand behind you every step of the way.

SERVING PART OR FULL-TIME?

Serving part-time gives you the flexibility to live life the way that is best for you, serving one weekend per month and two weeks each year. There are also full-time opportunities as a dual-status military technician or an Active Guard Reserve (AGR) member.

GET AHEAD WITH THE GUARD

Colleagues and prospective employers know you have the integrity and discipline that the military instills when you serve your community as a member of the Air Guard. You'll also be helping the people in your neighborhood when they need you the most, while serving your country with honor and pride.

ADVENTURE

In the Air National Guard, you can be almost anything, but you'll never be bored. Whether you dream of a rewarding career in the medical field or you seek the thrill of parachuting out the back of a C-130 aircraft, you'll find the adventure of a lifetime in the Air Guard.

In the Air Guard, you'll begin a military career that can take you wherever you choose. At the same time, you'll build a resume and gain experience that will put you head and shoulders above your peers in your civilian life.

TRAINING

You'll receive world-class training in the Air Guard that can prepare you for new opportunities in your civilian life. It can give you a real competitive edge in the job market, or can help you advance in your current career. And since you'll get up to 100% college tuition reimbursement, you can attend school without the worry - just one of the many benefits of joining the Air Guard.

CHOOSE YOUR CAREER

As someone who has been a member of the military, you know the rewards of serving your country. Now you can continue your military service, while helping your community and your state as well as the nation. This means you can be there for the people you care about, at the times when they need you most, while living life on your own terms. That's what serving part-time in the Air National Guard is all about.

The Air Guard is a unique branch of the military that serves both the federal and state governments. As a member of our team, you'll serve your country, and will be prepared to assist your community and state when called on by your Governor in times of need.

In the Air Guard, we believe that serving your community, protecting your state, and defending the skies over this great Nation are the most fulfilling ways to live your life. Everything that we do is for a purpose-the purpose of serving a cause greater than our own. The Air Guard offers an abundance of exciting opportunities.

BENEFITS OF PRIOR SERVICE

One of the real advantages of military service is the benefits package. As a member of the Air Guard, you'll receive a solid paycheck along with educational and other military benefits, including:

- Recapture the pride of wearing a uniform and the camaraderie with fellow servicemen and women.
- Serve your community and country as part of a team.
- Continue investing in a military retirement plan.
- Get additional Montgomery G.I. Bill benefits to help with educational expenses.
- Keep your low-cost health insurance for you and your family.
- Continue to have Base Exchange (BX) and Commissary shopping privileges.
- Keep the low-cost life insurance provided to all military members.
