

BEHIND THE BADGE

December 2022

FROM THE EDITOR

November was a busy month on www.recruiting.af.mil. We shared many feature stories on our site. Continue to submit your photos as you get them so we can publish them on time at the end of every month. Happy Holidays!

AROUND THE FORCE

CSAF joins 367th RCS at Texas Tech University

345th RCS participates in college career fair

345th RCS honors veterans

339th RCS supports JROTC

ICYMI - features published in November

U.S. Air Force Recruiting Sends Team To Blitz Detroit Suburbs (3-part series)

Air Force Recruiting Service Detachment 1 was assembled from all over the nation and descended on the suburbs of Detroit for a zone blitz Nov. 15-18, 2022.

How one Airman overcame barriers to reach uncommon heights

Christopher Stuebbe's path to Air Force Officer Training School and selection as a Tactical Air Control Party officer involved a setback, a waiver, enlistment, uncommon achievements and football.

Son of Air Force Chief Prepares to Take Flight

Chief Master Sgt. Michael Page, Eastern Sector senior enlisted advisor, was able to witness his son take the oath, sign his contract and join the Air Force at Milwaukee MEPS Oct. 24, 2022.

One couple's extraordinary journey to becoming Airmen

A thirty-something couple with college degrees and a pet enlisted in the Air Force to pursue a dream.

Pentatonix joins Air Force for radio special

Pop a cappella group Pentatonix has joined the Air Force to help celebrate the holiday season on a "Red, White and Air Force Blue Christmas." Produced by Air Force Recruiting Service, the one-hour radio special features songs from the group's latest album "Holidays Around the World."

Tech. Sgt. Greg Cerny, Broadcast Operations manager at Air Force Recruiting Service, conducts a virtual interview with a cappella group Pentatonix. (U.S. Air Force photo/Dale Eckroth)