PALACE FRONT is...

A program allowing Airmen who already have an approved DOS to seamlessly transfer from active service to selected reserve service within the ARC.

PALACE FRONT is not...

The PALACE FRONT program is not a voluntary separation program or a Pre-ETS process that will waive a current enlistment contract or active duty service commitment.

PALACE FRONT Guidance

For detailed guidance on the PALACE FRONT program, refer to DAFI 36-3211 and the Active Duty Separations Personnel Services Delivery \(PSD\) Guide

completed half their service commitment (2/3rds for officers)

Officer/Enlisted

WWW.AFRESERVE.COM

PALACE CHASE is...

A voluntary, early release program allowing active duty Airmen who have already completed half their initial service commitment (2/3 for officers) to transfer from active service to the Air Reserve Component by extending their service obligation.

PALACE CHASE is not...

The PALACE CHASE program is not an early separation program that will reduce a member's current service obligation by transferring to the Reserve.

OPPORTUNITIES & BENEFITS

Serve Full or Part-Time

Life changes call for stability and predictability. In the Reserve, there are several options to continue serving in full or part-time roles.

Part-Time Roles

TR = Traditional Reservist

IMA = Individual Mobilization Augmentee

IRR = Individual Ready Reserve

Full-Time Roles

ART = Air Reserve Technician

AGR = Active Guard/Reserve

Explore details of each role by speaking with an In-Service Recruiter or visiting the Air Reserve Personnel Center website.

Choose a Location

Serving in the Reserve allows you the opportunity to establish roots near family and friends. Perhaps you're searching for a civilian career opportunity or pursuing educational goals. Either way, transitioning to the Reserve allows you to focus on what matters most to you and your family with flexibility.

Benefits of Prior Service

As a prior service member, you will enjoy many of the same or low-cost benefits of wearing the uniform.

- TRICARE health coverage for you and your family at low-cost rates
- 100% Tuition Assistance
- Montgomery G.I. Bill, Post 9/11 G.I. Bill
- Affiliation Incentives and Bonuses
- Continuing educational opportunities within the Reserve for your career field
- A Reserve Retirement after accumulating 20 or more years of qualifying service
- Contributing toward a ROTH or traditional Thrift Savings Plan (not matched)
- Base access to the Exchange, Commissary, Fitness Center, and Outdoor Recreation/Travel office
