CAPTAIN CHAD T. SLAYTON

Capt Chad Slayton serves as Assistant Director of Operations of Warrant Officer Training School, Maxwell Air Force Base, Alabama. In this role, he is responsible for course development, execution of daily operations, and the training and scheduling for Warrant Officer Training School instructor cadre and candidates. Warrant Officer Training School is equipped to produce up to 300 candidates annually, preparing personnel to integrate technical and specialized expertise across the competition continuum.

Captain Slayton was commissioned into the Air Force in August of 2012 through Reserve Officer Training School at University of Northern Colorado. Upon commission he attended the Intelligence Officer Course in Goodfellow Air Force Base, Texas, graduating in April 2013. Since then, he has held various positions in assignments supporting air mobility operations, air operations center, space operations center, and intelligence directorates including a deployment to Al Udeid Air Base, Qatar, in 2016 supporting Operations INHERENT RESOLVE and FREEDOM'S SENTINEL. Captain Slayton separated from active duty in December 2023 and joined the Reserve in February 2023 where he continues to serve as an Individual Mobilization Augmentee. Prior to his current position, Capt Slayton was the Individual Mobilization Augmentee to the Chief of Intelligence, Surveillance, and Reconnaissance Analysis at the Curtis E. LeMay Center for Doctrine Development and Education.

Captain Slayton is also a Language Enabled Airman Program scholar for French and has completed a combined 408 hours of classroom instruction along with 28 days of language immersion.
